MAJORCA NEAR BURSTING POINT...

● British tourism industry sources are warning that peak season holidays to Spain, in particular Majorca, are nearly running out in the UK.

● Late bookers are being warned that they will not only have few choices, but also be faced with having to pay a high price for their holidays: page 3

EASTER BEGINS

● Police security over Easter in Palma will be provided by 220 officers, an increase in numbers over previous years and one partly required by a rise in the number of processions: see pages 22-23

SIX NATIONS SUPER SATURDAY

LONDON. England only had to watch on having already been declared Six Nations champions yesterday but there was plenty to play for in the rugby and the football.
