

Majorca Daily Bulletin

Tuesday, April 17 2018

1.20€ · Founded 1962 · N.16565 · Passeig de Mallorca 9 A,
Palma 07011

Balearic parliaments takes aim at cruise ships: Inside

New curbs on bogus holiday sickness claims ● British Justice Minister Rory Stewart: "Claiming compensation for being sick on holiday, when you haven't been, is fraud. This damages the travel industry and risks driving up costs for holidaymakers. This behaviour also tarnishes the reputation of British people abroad. That is why we are introducing measures to crack down on those who engage in this dishonest practice."

● See Page Three.

Bedrooms can now be rented out legally to tourists: See Page Four Inside Today

May seeks Commonwealth trade boost as Brexit talks begin: Inside