

Majorca Daily Bulletin

Wednesday, April 18 2018

1.20€ · Founded 1962 · N.16566 · Passeig de Mallorca 9 A, Palma 07011

125 years of news by our sister paper on show in Palma: P7

Too many cars on the road, says Council

- Local authorities concerned about congestion problems and urge travellers to use public transport.
- Four million road journeys made everyday, says report. See Page Five.

In the slow lane. Concerns over too many vehicles.

PM apologises to Caribbean countries for UK treatment of post-war migrants: SEE INSIDE TODAY

May in Brexit defeat

● Britain's upper house of parliament is expected to inflict an embarrassing defeat on Theresa May's government today, challenging her refusal to remain in a customs union with the European Union after Brexit. The prime minister, who has struggled to unite her Conservatives over Brexit, has said Britain will leave the EU's single market and customs union after it quits the bloc next March.