THREE HELD FOR ATTACKS ON TAXIS

● In the space of 36 hours the National Police arrested three people, two of whom are minors, in connection with the recent taxi attacks in the capital.

● The police have warned cabbies that installing CCTV cameras in their taxis is illegal as it contravenes the Data Protection Act. See page three

MAJORCA SNOW

PALMA. Snow fell yesterday on the highest peaks in the Tramuntana, such as Puig Major and Puig del Galatzó. Some roads were affected. At times yesterday morning, snow chains were necessary and obligatory for the MA-10 between Sa Calobra and the Mirador Ses Barques. By midday the situation had returned to normal.

The Council of Majorca issued normal advice for road users. If there is ice or significant snow, use chains and low gears, do not suddenly change direction, and avoid using brakes on icy stretches. Photo: Alberto J. Darder

Over 1,500 jobs in the EU, mostly in Spain, for Romanian workers

MADRID. Employers in the European Economic Area (EEA) are offering over 1,500 jobs in the EU (over 1,000 in Spain) via the Eures Romania network, informs the National Employment Agency (ANOFM) in a press release.
