FACE MASKS ARE HERE TO STAY

King Felipe of Spain.

● Face masks will be compulsory even after the State of Emergency ends on June 21. The Draft Decree states that masks are mandatory for anyone over 6 years old in enclosed spaces when it is not possible to guarantee the social distancing, when travelling "by air, sea, bus, or by railway and on public passenger transport vehicles with up to nine seats, including the driver." See Inside.

.....BUT THE MEDICAL WASTE WORRIES SPANIARDS

Madrid.—Spaniards are concerned about a new problem resulting from the coronavirus epidemic - how to safely get rid of vast amounts of disposable masks, gloves and other sanitary equipment.

A special prosecutor for environmental issues said yesterday that as the use of such items has soared, so had public concern about the mismanagement of contaminated waste. See Report Inside.
