Spanish public investment to rise by 27 bln euros in 2021 due to EU funds

Spain will increase state investment spending by 27 billion euros ($31.74 billion) in 2021 thanks to emergency European Union funds for recovery from the coronavirus crisis, the prime minister said yesterday.

Between 2021 and 2023, the government will spend 72 billion euros from the EU funds and an additional 800,000 jobs will be created, Pedro Sanchez added during an address on economic plans in front of a screen showing slogans including “Resistance” and “Advance.”

Between 2021 and 2023, the government will spend 72 billion euros from the EU funds and an additional 800,000 jobs will be created, Pedro Sanchez added during an address on economic plans in front of a screen showing slogans including “Resistance” and “Advance.”

Palma.—The Council of Majorca’s Tourism Foundation has held the draw for 1,000 vouchers for two nights in a hotel in Majorca as part of its Gaudeix l’illa (Enjoy the Island) programme.

Nine thousand people requested a voucher for a promotion to which the Majorca Tourism Foundation has allocated a 200,000 euro subsidy. The 1,000 vouchers are each worth 200 euros and they will be for a maximum of eighteen hotels.

These hotels will benefit from being assured of the occupancy of up to fifty rooms from October 15 to November 30. Each voucher is for two people, who will be able to enjoy two nights’ bed and breakfast for no more than 50 euros.

The eighteen hotels will be evenly distributed across the six regions of Majorca - Palma, the Tramuntana, Raiguer, Pla, Llevant and Migjorn. Hotels interested in being included in this scheme have until Friday to present their offers. They must have at least fifty rooms for two adults. The total price will be 250 euros, of which the foundation will subsidise 200 euros.

Palma.—The Council of Majorca’s Tourism Foundation has held the draw for 1,000 vouchers for two nights in a hotel in Majorca as part of its Gaudeix l’illa (Enjoy the Island) programme.

Nine thousand people requested a voucher for a promotion to which the Majorca Tourism Foundation has allocated a 200,000 euro subsidy. The 1,000 vouchers are each worth 200 euros and they will be for a maximum of eighteen hotels.

These hotels will benefit from being assured of the occupancy of up to fifty rooms from October 15 to November 30. Each voucher is for two people, who will be able to enjoy two nights’ bed and breakfast for no more than 50 euros.

The eighteen hotels will be evenly distributed across the six regions of Majorca - Palma, the Tramuntana, Raiguer, Pla, Llevant and Migjorn. Hotels interested in being included in this scheme have until Friday to present their offers. They must have at least fifty rooms for two adults. The total price will be 250 euros, of which the foundation will subsidise 200 euros.