BALEARIC FEARS OVER "NO DEAL" BREXIT

Palma.—Concern over Britain’s decision to forge ahead and leave the EU on January 1, without a ‘Brexit’ agreement, is causing deep concern in Majorca.

Representatives from the Majorca Chamber of Commerce, the Government and the CAEB have organised sectoral meetings to analyse the economic impact of ‘Brexit’. “The British Government’s decision to leave the European Union abruptly will have a very negative impact on the Balearics,” according to the Majorca Chamber of Commerce President, Antoni Mercant. See Inside.
