

Majorca Daily Bulletin

Wednesday, June 16 2021

1.20€ · Founded 1962 · N.17021 · Passeig de Mallorca 9 A,
Palma 07011

“Green List” fears for the
Balearics: See Inside

Historic posters
relaunched by Tourist Board

Balearics in a “good position” to end mask-wearing outdoors

● Javier Arranz, the spokesperson for the regional infectious diseases committee, said yesterday that the Balearics are in a good enough situation to be able to abandon the obligatory wearing of masks outdoors.

● See Page Three.

See Page Five Inside

Djokovic won the French Open on Sunday.

Djokovic to play doubles in Majorca ahead of Wimbledon defence

Madrid.—World number one Novak Djokovic has taken an unusual route to prepare for his title defence at Wimbledon by confirming his participation in doubles at next week’s ATP grass court event in Santa Ponsa. The Mallorca Championships was originally set to make its debut in 2020 but was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the ATP 250 event will be the first in Spain to be played on grass in the lead-up to Wimbledon, which starts on June 28.

Organisers announced the Serbian’s participation in the tournament on social media yesterday.

Djokovic won his fifth Wimbledon crown in 2019 and was unable to defend his title last year with the grass-court Grand Slam cancelled due to the pandemic.

He picked up his 19th major at the French Open on Sunday and a successful defence at Wimbledon would put him alongside Roger Federer and Rafa Nadal at the top of the list of men’s Grand Slam title winners.