CORRUPTION ROW

“Shameful” says Major

● Former British Prime Minister John Major yesterday attacked fellow Conservative Boris Johnson’s handling of a corruption row, calling the conduct “shameful” and saying this could undermine his popularity.

Johnson was forced to make an embarrassing U-turn after he abandoned plans pushed through parliament to protect a lawmaker found to have broken lobbying rules.

Major, said this week’s behaviour by the government had trashed the reputation of parliament and damaged the country’s standing in the world.
